Members Meeting

This morning following the service to consider applications for membership from Robin & Joy Campbell.

Men's Outing

The next outing of CB Men is scheduled to take place on Saturday 14th October. The trip is to the Ulster Museum and the accompanying Poppies Weeping exhibition. The trip is free and the plan is to meet at Carrickfergus Railway station at 13:24. On Saturdays the Museum closes at 17:00 which should provide us an opportunity for coffee afterwards. No need to sign up just appear on the day.

Car Park

Those using the car park are reminded that the 'Disabled' and 'Reserved' spaces are only to be used by those with limited mobility and/or those giving them a lift.

CBK Sunday Consent Forms

Parents of those children attending CBK Sunday are reminded to complete a Consent Form for each child. These can be found on the table at the entrance to the halls. Please see Lesley for more information.

CBK Monday

CBK Monday have had a good number of children coming along on a Monday night, with a significant number of girls. This has created a need for more female helpers.

If you can help on a Monday night, 6.45-8pm, please speak to Jim or Philip Magill.

Completion of AccessNI and Child Protection Procedure is essential before you can begin to volunteer.

Operation Christmas Child Boxes

We will be contributing to the Operation Christmas Child Appeal this year again. Boxes from Operation Christmas Child will be available on Sunday 15th October (or you can use your own wrapped shoebox).

The contribution to Operation Christmas Child for the box this year is £5.
