

1 Thessalonians 3 English Standard Version (ESV)

3 Therefore when we could bear it no longer, we were willing to be left behind at Athens alone, 2 and we sent Timothy, our brother and God's co-worker in the gospel of Christ, to establish and exhort you in your faith, 3 that no one be moved by these afflictions. For you yourselves know that we are destined for this. 4 For when we were with you, we kept telling you beforehand that we were to suffer affliction, just as it has come to pass, and just as you know. 5 For this reason, when I could bear it no longer, I sent to learn about your faith, for fear that somehow the tempter had tempted you and our labour would be in vain.

Timothy's Encouraging Report

6 But now that Timothy has come to us from you, and has brought us the good news of your faith and love and reported that you always remember us kindly and long to see us, as we long to see you— 7 for this reason, brothers, in all our distress and affliction we have been comforted about you through your faith. 8 For now we live, if you are standing fast in the Lord. 9 For what thanksgiving can we return to God for you, for all the joy that we feel for your sake before our God, 10 as we pray most earnestly night and day that we may see you face to face and supply what is lacking in your faith?

11 Now may our God and Father himself, and our Lord Jesus, direct our way to you, 12 and may the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all, as we do for you, 13 so that he may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.

Discussion Questions

Read Acts 17:1-10. What happened during Paul's initial visit to Thessalonica? Why does this explain how Paul responds in 1 Thessalonians 3:6-10?

What is Paul's source of joy? What is yours? How is our source of joy related to what we pray for?

In what ways does Paul's prayer in 1 Thessalonians 3:9-13 show his passion for people? How does this impact his prayers?

How does Paul's prayer in 1 Thessalonians 3:11-13 give us insight into his understanding of Jesus?

What is Paul's burden for the Thessalonians? Is this your burden for fellow believers?

How are you encouraged or challenged by Paul's example of affection and intercession for other believers? How are you going to specifically apply this?

Personal

Set yourself the task of faithfully praying for a Christian who you do not already pray for – then after a few months tell the person.

Who has recently demonstrated faith and love? Thank God for this and tell the person you have been thanking God for them.
