

Study Questions for I Dare Chapter One Isn't "No" an Answer?

1. Do some research about India. How many children live there? What conditions do they live in? What are their different religions? How do they worship?
2. What is happening in India now? Look at Aljazeera.com and search for "India." Also go to www.operationworld.org. Scroll down to the map, click on Asia then click on India. Take a few minutes to pray for India.
3. Why was Amy upset when she woke up and saw she still had brown eyes?
4. What important lesson did young Amy learn that helped her throughout her ministry in India?
5. What did Amy do to try fit in with the Indian people and look less like an outsider?
6. Why did Amy want to go into the temple?
7. How did Amy disguise herself?
8. What did Amy find as she walked through the temple?
9. Why was the cart taking the idol and girls into the temple a discouragement to Amy?

Chapter Two Even Little Children

1. What helped Amy make the decision to trust Jesus as her Savior from sin?
2. What important lesson about children did Amy learn as a teenager?
3. What was Preena's punishment for running from the temple the first time?
4. Why is it foolish for people to worship and pray to idols?
5. What exciting news did Amy teach Preena about God?
6. Why did Preena want to stay with Amy so badly?
7. Who gave Preena the courage to tell the temple women that she didn't want to go back with them?
8. How can you know that even little children can believe in and trust Jesus as their Savior?

Chapter Three

Things That Are Eternal

1. Why was Amy surprised that the people were laughing at her as she was helping the old woman?
2. What important lesson did Amy learn while helping the old woman?
3. While working in India, Amy did things that what last for eternity. What kind of things did Amy do?
4. What did Amy do to find out where the temple children came from?
5. Why did Amy's friends think it was not important for Amy to rescue the temple children?
6. How did God show Amy that it was okay for her to buy the little girl from her father before he sent her to the temple?
7. Why did Amy and her family need to move to a place like Dohnavur?
8. Who was Jewel of Victory?
9. How did Jewel find out about the one true God?
10. What did Jewel do to be safe from the false gods?

Chapter Four

God's Provision Is Enough

1. How did Jewel of Victory show she loved God more than she loved her family and friends?
2. What lesson did Amy learn when the rich man refused to donate money for orphanage?
3. What difficulties helped Amy trust God more?
4. How did God provide what Amy needed to support her growing family?
5. Why did Amy not want to buy a car?
6. What did Amy and the others at Dohnavur do to figure out if they should buy a car or not?
7. What incident caused Amy to believe God wanted her to buy a car?
8. What made it possible for Amy to start rescuing boys?
9. Why did Amy and her family want to buy the piece of land near their hospital in Dohnavur?

Chapter Five Protection Unseen

1. How did Amy learn about the shawlies and share the love of God with them?
2. What happened one night as Amy was walking to the train?
3. What lesson did Amy learn when the woman pulled her inside and yelled at the mob of boys?
4. How did this lesson help Amy later in India?
5. How did God protect Amy and the little girl whose family was not going to let her believe in Jesus?
6. What stopped Amy from having an active part in the children's lives?
7. What very important work did Amy do not that she couldn't walk around the house and take care of the children?
8. How has God used the writings of Amy Carmichael?
9. What does Romans 12:1 mean for the saved children that will be in your clubs this summer? What does it mean for you?